Training and Medical Director Report

Carl gave report for Scott Symonds. EMT class is going well they are a month and half into the class.

EMT-I class starts at the end of the month. The class is full.

MCI drill in Westminster went well.

Medical Director

Dr. Marasa apologized for not being able to get the district a mailbox at the hospital. The hospital is trying to do away with private mailboxes. Everything else is going good, been very busy.

Old Business

Carl gave update on the AED grants. All districts are going to be getting 6 AED's. Carl will represent the district at the AED vendor and ordering meetings. If any agency in the district has a request for an AED contact Carl. As a reminder the agencies should be looking at Level 3 and 4 distribution. (Public Access)

New Business

Agency licenses were turned into Carl for signatures and submission.

Carl passed out information on the Vermont Baby Safe Haven Law.

Carl passed out EMT-B recertification sheets. The Vermont EMS office is no going to allow online CEU's for recertification. There are numerous web based training sites. The is not one recommended site, but what ever site an agency chooses to use it must have Continuing Education Coordinating Board for EMS (CECBEMS) approval or approval from the VT EMS office. The new sheets will be available on the VT EMS web site.

Motion Judy Cobb, 2nd Cary Stratford to adjourn. (Passed) Meeting adjourned at 19:41.

Next Meeting Jan. 24, 2007 at Bellows Falls FD.
